

OUR MISSION

We are here to encourage and help you combine your time with philanthropic work.

ABOUT

Ubuntu is a noun in the Zulu Language that may be translated as the belief that our compassion and kindness towards others defines us.

A life partner, mother to two girls, advocate of global issues and businesswoman,

Determined to provide her children with a similar experience to her own, she founded the Ubuntu Family Initiative, a gateway for her family to each individually pursue the causes they contribute towards through their values, passions and interests.

Since its launch in January 2019,

The Ubuntu family initiative has been a personal recount of our travels and giving journey as a philanthropic family,

The Ubuntu family initiative has helped several projects, from sponsoring education and marginalised children to contributing towards conservation and environmental projects.

OUR PRACTICE

We collaborate with non-profits and provide the resources to inspire action and motivate change.

Today,

The Ubuntu family initiative wishes to build a legacy of giving by inspiring future generations of philanthropists,

Designed so that young adults may research the community projects with whom we have as a family had positive donor experiences on one website,

Taking initiative means the ability to see something that needs to be done and deciding to do it out of your own free will without someone else telling you to do it.

WHAT IS A MENTOR?

A mentor is someone who shares their knowledge, skills and/or experience, to help another to develop and grow.

By explaining that you dispose of the value of time,

By guiding you in your search for opportunities, and by encouraging you through your process towards your moment of impact.

HOW MUCH TIME DO I NEED TO SET ASIDE EACH WEEK TO ACHIEVE MY GOALS?

As a mentee, you are expected to lead the mentoring relationship and make sure it keeps progressing.

WHAT ARE THE NEXT STEPS?

Let's chat! So we may understand your areas of interest and aspirations and discuss how we can achieve them.

THE PROCESS:

SELECT YOUR CAUSE

As individuals, we are not able to help everyone in need and so we must make difficult decisions about where we use our resources. If you care about doing the most good you can do, it is important to support causes that offer the greatest opportunities for impact.

WEAR YOUR PASSION

Our campaign title represents the fundraiser itself: what you believe in, who you are, how you do it, and why you do what you do. For this reason, you need to put a lot of thought into your brand and how you're telling your story to your community. Fundraising with branded merchandise gives you an opportunity to share your story in a more creative fashion

PLAN YOUR FUNDRAISER

Fundraising is hard work. Even with the most dedicated base of supporters and a compelling mission, it takes time and careful strategy to lay out a fundraising plan that will reach and exceed its goals.

LOOK FOR CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

Corporate sponsorship is a form of support you may receive from corporations for an event or other project.

FUNDRAISE

Fundraising is the process of collecting money as donations, for a cause from individuals and businesses. A person who raises the money from them is known as a fundraiser.

VOLUNTEER

Volunteering is described as an unpaid activity where someone gives their time to help a not-for-profit organization or an individual to whom they are not related. One of the better-known benefits of volunteering is its impact on the community. Unpaid volunteers are often the glue that holds a community together.
